

To D/C or Not To D/C?

The Pharmacological Management of Co/Multimorbidities Near the End of Life

Jennifer A. Pruskowski, PharmD, BCPS, CGP

Palliative Care Pharmacy Fellow

James J. Peters Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Bronx, New York

Jennifer A. Pruskowski received her Doctorate of Pharmacy from Wilkes University in Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania in 2011 and completed a Post-Graduate Year One Residency in Pharmacy Practice, and Post-Graduate Year Two Pharmacy Residency in Geriatrics at the William Jennings Bryan Dorn Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Columbia, South Carolina. During her time in South Carolina, Pruskowski became involved with both pain management and palliative care through her participation in the Outpatient Interdisciplinary Pain Program, a rehabilitation minded tertiary treatment option for veterans diagnosed with chronic non-cancer pain syndromes, and service as a hospice volunteer through Palmetto Health Hospice.

Pruskowski is the Palliative Care Pharmacy Fellow at the James J. Peters Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Bronx, New York. Through this fellowship she has additional learning experiences throughout the New York metropolitan area. Pruskowski is a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist and a Certified Geriatric Pharmacist, and has received specialized training in pain management from the American Society of Consultant Pharmacists.

Date: Tuesday, March 4, 2014

Time: 1:00 -2:00 p.m.

Location: 456 Salk Hall

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

School of Pharmacy
THE ART and SCIENCE OF EXCELLENCE

Established 1878